

2024 Fiber Forward Magazine Call for Articles – Critical Thinking

Doug Mohny, Editor-in-Chief, Fiber Forward

Guidelines for submissions to Fiber Forward magazine

- 1) Pieces should discuss technical or operational aspects of a fiber network that would be of interest to current and potential operators.
- 2) Topics could include discussion of fiber deployments, customer turnup, unique applications of the fiber network beyond stock broadband access, cost savings of fiber over other media, transition from other media to fiber, acquisition of existing fiber assets to incorporate into business operations.
- 3) Pieces should not engage in self-promotional and/or marketing of products and services.
- 4) Pieces should be submitted by FBA members in good standing
- 5) Article length should be targeted at 600 words (1 page) or 1200 words (two pages).
- 6) Articles should be accompanied by one or two illustrations with 300 dpi or better resolution if involving digital photography.
- 7) There are no guarantees or representations made that any submitted article will be published either in the next edition or in a future edition. Articles are published on a space available basis at the sole discretion of the Editor-in-Chief.
- 8) If there are multiple submissions for a particular issue of the magazine, the Editor-in-Chief will use his best discretion in selecting the piece(s) to be used, based upon editorial needs and best match to the editorial calendar for that issue.
- 9) The editorial staff reserves the right to make corrections and edits for length once articles are submitted
- 10) The Editor-in-Chief reserves the right to change and/or amend these criteria as needed.

Pieces should be submitted two weeks in advance of materials close to allow sufficient time for review and editing.
